

When you work with us at Positive Futures, we like to think you're part of the family.

As a member of our family, we can promise you the following:

PEOPLE

In Positive Futures, people are more important than processes. We want to be the very best employer and we trust you to be an ambassador for the organisation in the kindness you show to others.

COMMUNICATION

We value your views and opinions, we listen to you and encourage your involvement in decision making.

SHOWING APPRECIATION

We aim to treat you not just fairly, but with appreciation. When you do something well or go the extra mile, we'll show that appreciation and celebrate your efforts.

FLEXIBILITY

We believe in a good work / life balance and will strive to offer you the working hours that suit you best.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

We'll support you to identify and, where possible, obtain the qualifications you need and build the career you want

TRAINING

The best available, together with support and coaching to help you do your job to the best of your ability.

LIFE OUTSIDE WORK

We understand that you have a family and commitments outside work. That's why we'll work with you, where possible, to accommodate time off when you need it.

Our promises apply to all of us.
